

May 2016

Salve JCL Sponsor,

With the school year drawing to a close, the time has come for the important process of electing two new officers for our state organization. I am delighted to inform you that elections are now open for the offices of VJCL Historian and VJCL Editor. Any student wishing to run for either of these positions should be prepared to fulfill all duties expected of that office as outlined in the VJCL Constitution and Manual. These resources can be found on the VJCL website. I can promise the task of being an officer is as demanding as it is rewarding, and I encourage all those who wish to further immerse themselves in the VJCL apply.

All students wishing to be considered as a pre-filed candidate for VJCL Historian or Editor must submit an application complete with all necessary signatures by June 15st, 2016 to the VJCL Parliamentarian. In order to encourage greater pre filed participation in these elections, this date has been extended. I greatly encourage all to take advantage of this wonderful opportunity. Please note well that any interested student is not required to attend National Convention this summer. To be considered, the student need only file an application by June 15st, and may send his or her speech with any delegate present who will present it to the Virginia delegation. All students interested in the position are ardently encouraged to pre-file. To run for office while not attending NJCL Convention, the student must be pre-filed.

Any classics student who wishes to further serve our wonderful organization is greatly encouraged to apply. For those students with questions, please feel free to contact me at parliamentarian@virginiajcl.org. I look forward to receiving applications soon.

Thank you for encouraging your students to consider this great opportunity!

Ex amino,
